

How to Survive a Title I Monitoring

Federal law requires that districts and schools using Title I funds be monitored by the State Education Agency. This review consists of financial and programmatic pieces. This session will go over the process of a monitoring using the Montana Office of Public Instruction's monitoring tool. Attendees will learn what to expect, what documents will be needed, how to put a portfolio together, and how to respond to and findings and needed corrections.